n/a
- 3) Approve minutes from meeting held 19th October 2023
All councillors agreed and Chair signed as a correct record.
- 4) Matters Arising
Llananno Church – no further update
- 5) Update from County Councillor Geoff Morgan (includes Llanbister School update)
Cllr G Morgan updated the council.

Bi-election in Crickhowell – 2 Liberals. Another in Talybont

Put motion in for council farm – Council wouldn't grant meeting so they have appealed again from conservatives, labour, independents and plaid cymru. Doesn't look like the sale will stop for this farm but hopefully they will have a plan in place for future sales. Cllr Morgan is protesting for it to be made public. His view is that all council sales should be going in the public market to start with.

Poll tax will have to go up 15-20%, in his opinion.

Bute energy – local g'ment consortium have contributed to Bute energy.

Llanbister School – hoping to get the headteacher issue resolved but hasn't happened yet. Parent Governor role has come up, the school are taking applications.
